Editors' Note

From its inception in 1974, Scripta Classica Israelica has been devoted to the study of Classics and Ancient History. We welcome articles in English, French, German, Italian or Latin on any aspect of the classical world. The journal is published in Israel by the Israel Society for the Promotion of Classical Studies and is generously supported by the Hebrew University of Jerusalem, Tel Aviv University, Bar Ilan University, Haifa University and Ben-Gurion University of the Negev.

This year we have introduced three new features which are intended to represent scholarly activity in the Classics in Israel: Classics in Hebrew, Dissertations in progress in Israeli Universities and the Proceedings of The Israel Society for the Promotion of Classical Studies. Volume XI is the first to be produced entirely on a computer. We hope that this new technology will not only make editing more efficient and accurate but also enable us to bring out a new issue every year. Typescripts, preferably accompanied by discs, as well as books for review, should be sent to: The Editors, Scripta Classica Israelica, c/o Department of Classics, The Hebrew University of Jerusalem, Jerusalem 91905, Israel. References to ancient and modern literature should follow the conventions of APh, LSJ and OLD. All submissions are refereed by outside readers.

The journal's editors may be reached through e-mail at the following addresses: HAUHC@HUJIVM1 (Hannah M. Cotton) or PRICE@TAUNIVM (Jonathan J. Price). Our fax number is (972-2) 322 545 (attn: Hannah M. Cotton, Department of Classics).
